Cherry Street Market Debuts on Oct. 15

DES MOINES, Iowa – The first-ever Cherry Street Market, sponsored by West End Architectural Salvage is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 15 from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. at the corner of 9th and Cherry Streets in downtown Des Moines. The market will feature antiques, collectibles, folk art, jewelry, vintage clothing and more from vendors from across the Midwest.

“We are very excited to celebrate West End’s 6th anniversary with the Cherry Street Market,” Joe Davis of West End Architectural Salvage said. “There will be vendors selling items for everyone including painted furniture and landscaping items made from salvaged materials.”

The event will also include a raffle for a FREE space rental at West End. The lucky winner will receive the space and staff to host a 3-hour event that entertains up to 300 people. Dates are limited; food and drink are not included. $800 value.

Vendors outside at the event include The Rusty Pumpkin, Carter Station, Funky Finds, JB Knacker, Old Crow Antiques, Set in Stone, Junk Garden, Weston Primitive Co., The Boyd Girls, and Vintage No. 35. Inside West End, participants will be able to purchase Taylor’s Maid-Rites and enjoy storewide sales.

The afternoon will be highlighted with a live performance from local blues artist Tina Haase Findlay from 11 a.m.-2 p.m.
